

SOCIAL JUSTICE: OPEN QUESTIONS AND DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVES IN SOUTH AFRICA AND EUROPE

MAY 8-23, 2025

Online course open to all students of the University of Siena

UNIVERSITÀ
DI SIENA 1240

COIL
Collaborative Online International Learning

Central University of Technology, Free State

USiena
SOFT&DIGITAL SKILLS

For this series of meetings, recognition of 3 credits is foreseen for "Activities useful for entering the world of work". In order to obtain the CFU, it is compulsory to attend all meetings, do provided readings and participate actively in working groups. Students will also be required to submit a final short report on their experience and will also be awarded the appropriate Open Badge.

Date		hours
Thursday	May 8, 2025	h. 12:30-13:30
Thursday	May 15, 2025	h. 9:00-10.30
Friday	May 16, 2025	h. 9:00-10.30
Tuesday	May 20, 2025	h. 9:00-11.00
Friday	May 23, 2025	h. 14:00-16.00

Info: alessandra.viviani@unisi.it

Register now: <https://sdskills.unisi.it>

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- ◆ Discuss issues related to social justice and discrimination from the European and South African perspectives.
- ◆ The activity will be carried out online as part of a project which links the University of Siena with 5 different academic institutions in South Africa.

LEARNING METHODOLOGIES

The adopted methodology for this soft skill module is COIL (collaborative online international learning) and involves online virtual exchange activities with a class of CUT- Central University of technology, Free State, SA.

MAXIMUM NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS

n. 15

LANGUAGE: ENG